To whom it may concern

Subject: Wisewoulds Lawyers

Clarity Consulting Group Australia Pty Ltd became a client of Wisewoulds Lawyers in 2005, following past associations with both larger and smaller specialist firms. Our initial engagement involved matters relating to corporate and commercial law, but has since expanded to include matters involving employment, property and insurance law.

While offering the same core services as the large legal firms, we believe Wisewoulds differentiates its legal services through the provision of pragmatic solutions backed by knowledgeable and experienced practice leads. Of equal importance are the ease of accessibility to this expertise and the promptness of this legal advice, both of which are important in ensuring that Clarity can fulfill its own client commitments.

I commend the services of Wisewoulds Lawyers to any organisation seeking a long-term relationship with a dedicated legal firm, which is attuned to their clients' needs for practical legal advice aimed at providing an optimum result.

Yours faithfully

Dennis Michael
Managing Director
